PUPPETRY PROGRAM

starts Nov. 5, 2020
www.theconcernedkids.com

This program is a 4-week arts based program wherein children and their caregivers will have the opportunity to work in tandem and co-create a new art project each week. The emphasis for this program will be the usage of art as an equalizer between parent and child, so parents are not necessarily guiding the children in their creative endeavors; rather, they will be working together to create beautiful art without the focus of perfection interfering with the goal of enjoyment.

Objective: To bring the caregiver and child closer to each other through the co-creative artistic process, and to give them a reprieve from the rigidity of daily life by allowing for open and rule-free creation through exploration. Visit us online to register.

Writing Prompts

Writing prompts are a great way to boost our creative writing. It can help us find a 'starting point' for a story and get our imagination engine revving!

Tell us....

1. What was your favourite memory from this summer?
2. What are you looking forward to for next summer?

Do you have a story you want to share with us? Send us an email to info@theconcernedkids.com and it may be featured in the next Funsplosion.

An Interview with a Soldier

Meet Ashton! He is a Master Corporal in the Canadian Armed Forces and a friend of the Concerned Kids.

HI! I'M ASHTON

1. What do you do in the Canadian Armed Forces?

I am a Mobile Support Equipment Operator. That means I'm a truck driver to help supply others to help us succeed in any mission. I sometimes use special equipment like mobile gas stations! I also teach and train new soldiers when they join the military.

2. Where do you work? Do you live on a base?

I work at a reserve base in Hamilton, but I live in my own house! Being a reservist, I don't need to live on or within any distance of a base.

3. What made you want to join the military? Why did you choose the army?

I joined the army because I wanted to be a part of an organization that can support my community and country when it is in need. I have always wanted to join the military but had other goals I wanted to accomplish outside of the military, so becoming a reservist helped me do both!

4. What are some of the things you do when you are at work?

When I work I practice skills with other members of my team like maintain trucks, practicing tactically resupplying units and teaching new recruits skills to be successful soldiers. Sometimes when there are natural disasters or public emergencies, I can be asked to help with disaster relief like floods or to respond to COVID-19.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Canadian Armed Forces (or 'CAF' for short) are made up of men and women who serve in the Canadian Army, the Royal Canadian Navy, and the Royal Canadian Air Force. All three groups work together as one team to support Canada. Members of the Army are called Soldiers. Ashton and his friend are Soldiers.

5. What is your favorite part of your job?

My favorite part of my job is getting to mentor and teach new generations of soldiers as they enter the military. I find it is really rewarding helping as they go through the basic military qualification courses and shape them into effective soldiers.

6. How would you describe the importance of Remembrance Day?

I feel that Remembrance Day is so important because there are so many others who have risked and lost their lives for the freedoms and privileges that we take for granted every other day. There are some places in the world where it isn't safe for people to go to school, and others are judged for things that are accepted and welcomed here in Canada. When we realize how blessed and lucky we are to enjoy everything we do, it is easy to forget the price others have paid to be where we are today.

Remembrance Day

AROUND THE WORLD

Anzac Day

Australian Remembrance Day, called Anzac Day, takes place on April 25th. Like in Canada, the United Kingdom, and many other countries, the poppy is a national symbol of remembrance and is worn to honor those that have fought for their country.

FALL VIRTUAL AFTER SCHOOL CLUB

Building on TCK's very successful Virtual Backyard Camp, TCK's After School Club offers children 7-12 years old with 4-week or 8-week virtual workshops. Our program that starts at 4:00 PM and run to 5:30 PM, engages our young audience while giving parents a much-needed break.

Our programs are designed to combat feelings of loneliness and isolation, and encourage positive thinking, goal setting, positive friendship skills, communication skills and empathy. Weekly, facilitators will lead fun art-based activities while exploring social themes youth face on a daily basis.

Every session will begin with a sing-a-long/ movement exercise to warm-up the group followed by a performance by one of our puppet characters. Our puppets will lead in a sharing circle with the group. The virtual club concludes with a facilitated art-based activity.
